Re: Howard K. Stern v. John O'Quinn, Case No. 07-60534-CIV-DIMITROULEAS

Dear Rob:

Concerning Defendants' responses to Plaintiff's discovery requests, due May 23, given the date of Ms. Vicedomine's deposition we ask that you to produce responsive documents to us directly by Federal Express (or comparable overnight delivery) mail if that is agreeable. We will, of course, pay for postage. If that is unworkable, please let me know.

I anticipate that there will be objections by Defendants to the requests and that some documents may be withheld on assertion of privilege. As such, please also include the requested privilege log with the responsive documents. Again, if that is unworkable, please let me know so we may plan accordingly.

Further, given the Objections raised by Ms. Vicedomine to Plaintiff's subpoena of April 30 regarding "documents and things protected from disclosure by the attorney-client communications privilege, attorney-work product privilege, and other rights and privileges", I am serving with this letter a Notice of Deposition for Ms. Vicedomine in her capacity as a current or former investigator, agent, employee, etc. of Mr. O'Quinn and/or The O'Quinn Law Firm.

Please let Lin or I know if you have any questions regarding the above, or contact me if I can assist in the logistics of producing the requested documents and privilege log.

Sincerely,
